INTRODUCTIONS

A scenic highway curves along a deep blue lake, framed by towering evergreen trees and majestic mountains. A concrete barrier wall runs alongside the road on the left. On the right, a steep rock face is covered in green vegetation and a safety net. The sky is a clear, vibrant blue with wispy white clouds.

A close-up photograph showing a person's hands working on a traditional Islamic geometric pattern, likely khatam or intarsia, on a wooden surface. The pattern consists of intricate, symmetrical designs made of dark wood inlays. The hands are carefully placing and adjusting the inlays. The lighting highlights the precision of the craftsmanship.

A white toilet is positioned in the middle of a row of red theater-style seats. The toilet is oriented vertically, with its tank on the left and seat on the right. The surrounding seats are a vibrant red color, creating a stark contrast with the white toilet. The background is dark, making the red seats stand out.
